Boards of trustees meet every three months and academic advisory body meets once in every semester.

Organizational chart

Nature and extend of involvement of faculty and students in academic affairs/improvements.

- The MCA association, organizes various programmes like seminars, exhibitions, competitions etc. to enhance the professional competence of the students.
- English has been enforced as the language of the campus. A team of staff and students is actively involved in the proper implementation of the same.
- Provision is made for special coaching in certain subjects. These coaching classes are conducted outside the normal college hours, at the request of the students. The service of the faculty is voluntary.
- A lab committee consisting of a staff member and students is formed to ensure optimum utilization of lab resources. Additional practical classes are provided at no cost, on weekends. The faculty concerned makes himself/herself available on these days.
- Formation of a student chapter of Computer Society of India is underway.
- Industry interaction team - A team of students has been formed with the object of acquainting the students with the actual working conditions in software companies. And the team is headed by a faculty who has the experience of industry working conditions. Also both the staff and students are actively involved in improving the job placement opportunities by interacting with the IT companies known to them.

Mechanisms/norms and procedure for democratic/good governance.

- Board of trustees - the board meets quarterly and discusses and plans the developmental requirements of the college.
- Staff council - the council meets regularly to evaluate the progress of the institution.
- Student council - a democratically elected student council is responsible for the planning and execution of the curricular and co-curricular activities of the college.
- Discipline committee - the committee takes care of the disciplinary procedures, as and when needed.
- Prevention of sexual harassment cell - a committee consisting of the director, a lady faculty and two students from girls and one boy student was formed to prevent and look into the sexual harassment grievances, if it occurs.

Student feedback on institutional governance / faculty performance.

- The principal periodically meets the students in their class, during which he also gets their feedback on institutional governance.
- The meeting of the principal with the students' representatives is a forum for collecting feedback.
- Feedback forms are used to evaluate the faculty performance in each semester.

Grievance redressal mechanism for faculty, staff and students.

Faculty/staff

A committee constituted by the director will look into the grievance of the faculty as and when needed.

Students

A discipline and welfare committee, headed by the principal, and a member of the faculty and representative of students from each semester is formed to maintain the discipline and rules of the institution. The same committee will function as the complaint-cum-redressal committee.
